FUND MANAGER'S REPORT, February '26

ECONOMY AND CAPITAL MARKETS UPDATE

Economic Review

February reinforces a familiar theme: stabilization is taking hold, but durability remains uncertain. External buffers are improving, fiscal balances remain supportive at the primary level, and targeted policy measures are aiding selective industrial recovery—though structural gaps in exports, revenue mobilization, and energy persist. Inflation edged higher to 6.99% YoY (+0.27% MoM), driven by non-food components, while food inflation remained contained. Sticky core inflation continues to constrain near-term monetary flexibility. Externally, the current account recorded a USD 121mn surplus in January, supported by import compression (–7% MoM) and strong remittances of USD 3.47bn (+15% YoY). FX reserves improved to USD 21.4bn (SBP: USD 16.2bn), providing 2.53 months of import cover, though the 7MFY26 current account remains in deficit at USD 1.07bn, reflecting structurally elevated imports. Fiscal dynamics remain mixed but broadly anchored. While earlier consolidation delivered a 1HFY26 surplus (~PKR 542bn) and strong primary balance, revenue mobilization continues to lag. FBR collected PKR 944bn in February (+11% YoY), missing the target by PKR 85bn, with 8MFY26 collections at PKR 8.12trn, PKR 430bn below target, highlighting execution risks and potential reliance on IMF-linked corrective measures. Monetary aggregates indicate continued liquidity expansion. Broad money (M2) stood at PKR ~41.0trn, driven primarily by net domestic assets (PKR ~39.9trn)—notably government borrowing from banks—while private sector credit (PKR ~10.7trn) shows gradual recovery. Net foreign assets remain modest, underscoring reliance on domestic liquidity conditions. Energy developments remain bifurcated. Power sector circular debt has eased to ~PKR 1.689trn, reflecting improved liquidity and resolution efforts, while gas sector circular debt has risen sharply to PKR 3.28trn, underscoring structural inefficiencies. Policy support has strengthened industrial sentiment: the industrial electricity package reduced tariffs by up to PKR 4.58/unit, with PKR 4.04/unit embedded in base tariffs, and ~127k industrial units (46%) benefiting from PKR 10.3/unit discounts on incremental usage, incentivizing higher utilization. Real sector momentum remains selective. LSM grew 0.4% YoY and 9.3% MoM in December, taking 1HFY26 growth to 4.8%, led by autos, textiles, and energy-linked sectors, while heavy industries lag—indicating an early-cycle recovery. Lower energy costs and export-focused support should continue to support margins. Meanwhile, IMF engagement remains a key anchor, with the 3rd review under the USD 7bn EFF and USD 1.1bn RSF expected to unlock a USD 1.2bn tranche by April, reinforcing external financing visibility. Overall, stabilization is progressing, but sustaining momentum will depend on fiscal execution, broader industrial recovery, and addressing structural weaknesses—particularly in energy and the external account.

Money Market Review

Inflation dynamics in February 2026 showed a mixed trend, with headline inflation increasing while core inflation eased slightly. Headline CPI rose to 6.99% YoY in February, compared to 5.8% YoY in January. Meanwhile, core inflation edged down to 7.59% YoY from 7.63% in January, indicating a marginal easing in underlying inflationary pressures. Within the core components, core rural inflation remained broadly stable at 8.29% YoY (vs. 8.28% in January), while core urban inflation moderated slightly to 7.12% YoY from 7.19% in January, suggesting some easing in urban price pressures. Food inflation also increased notably to 5.39% YoY from 3.86% in January, contributing significantly to the rise in headline inflation. At the same time, non-food inflation rose to 8.06% YoY from 7.21% in January, indicating that cost-side pressures remain present. On the liquidity front, the State Bank of Pakistan (SBP) conducted a T-bill auction, attracting PKR 3,458 billion in total participation, while the total accepted amount stood at PKR 1,434 billion. Cut-off yields at the most recent auction settled at 10.14% (1-month), 10.23% (3-month), 10.42% (6-month), and 10.53% (12-month), reflecting an upward adjustment in short-term market yields compared to the previous month amid evolving inflation expectations and liquidity conditions. Additionally, SBP accepted PKR 343 billion in Pakistan Investment Bonds (PIBs) across multiple maturities. The accepted amount included PKR 26 billion in the 2-year, PKR 151 billion in the 3-year, PKR 207 billion in the 5-year, and PKR 58 billion in the 10-year tenors, with demand primarily concentrated in the medium-term segment, particularly the 3-year and 5-year maturities. On the external front, the current account recorded a surplus of USD 121 million in January 2026, compared to a USD 265 million deficit in December 2025. Cumulatively, the 7MFY26 current account balance posted a deficit of USD 1,074 million, compared to a USD 564 million surplus during 7MFY25, reflecting relatively stronger import demand despite continued support from resilient workers' remittances and stable global commodity prices. Meanwhile, foreign exchange reserves remained broadly stable, rising to USD 21.43 billion as of 27 February 2026, compared to USD 21.34 billion as of 30 January 2026. The reserves comprised USD 16.30 billion held by SBP and USD 5.18 billion with commercial banks, providing continued comfort on external liquidity and exchange rate stability. The yield curve shifted upward across most tenors during February, reflecting evolving inflation expectations and market repricing of interest rate dynamics. Increases were observed across both short and medium-term maturities, with relatively larger adjustments in the belly of the curve (4–10 year tenors), indicating some reassessment of medium-term rate expectations by market participants. Overall, February reflected a modest tightening in money market conditions, characterized by higher market yields and rising headline inflation. While core inflation showed marginal moderation, the increase in food and non-food inflation suggests that underlying price pressures remain present, keeping the near-term monetary outlook cautious and data-dependent.

Stock Market Review

In February 2026, the KSE-100 Index closed at 168,062, registering a decline of 8.7% MoM (down 16,112 points) amid sizeable foreign outflows and subdued market activity. Net FPI recorded an outflow of USD 278.9 million during the month, while average daily traded value decreased by 33.53% MoM to USD 111.5 million and average daily volumes fell by 14.34% MoM to 408.7 million shares. Market sentiment remained under pressure due to several macroeconomic and geopolitical factors, including uncertainty surrounding the USD 2 billion UAE loan rollover, the commencement of the 3rd International Monetary Fund EFF review from February 25, 2026, and elevated US–Iran tensions that caused volatility in international oil prices, leading to a 5.13% increase in MS prices and a 4.65% rise in HSD prices. On the domestic front, the implementation of the T+1 settlement reduced market leverage, triggering margin calls and panic selling, further intensified by heavy foreign selling. The security situation deteriorated markedly in Balochistan and KP, prompting retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan, while Barrick Gold placed the Reko Diq project under review due to security concerns. On the macroeconomic front, NCPI for February 2026 stood at 7% YoY; the current account posted a surplus of USD 121 million in January 2026, and net FDI for the month stood at USD 173 million. Additionally, the Prime Minister reduced industrial electricity tariffs from PKR 30.80 per unit to PKR 26.03 per unit, offset by the imposition of fixed monthly charges on households.

FUND MANAGERS' REPORT

February, 2026

ABL
Stock Fund

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

To provide higher risk adjusted returns over the long term by investing in a diversified portfolio of equity instruments offering capital gain and dividends.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

ABL-SF decreased by -8.86% in Feb'26 against -8.75% decrease in the benchmark, reflecting an underperformance of 11 basis points. In February 2026, the KSE-100 Index closed at 168,062, registering a decline of 8.7% MoM (down 16,112 points) amid sizeable foreign outflows and subdued market activity. Net FPII recorded an outflow of USD 278.9 million during the month, while average daily traded value decreased by 33.53% MoM to USD 111.5 million and average daily volumes fell by 14.34% MoM to 408.7 million shares. Market sentiment remained under pressure due to several macroeconomic and geopolitical factors, including uncertainty surrounding the USD 2 billion UAE loan rollover, the commencement of the 3rd International Monetary Fund EFF review from February 25, 2026, and elevated US-Iran tensions that caused volatility in international oil prices, leading to a 5.13% increase in MS prices and a 4.65% rise in HSD prices. On the domestic front, the implementation of the T+1 settlement reduced market leverage, triggering margin calls and panic selling, further intensified by heavy foreign selling. The security situation deteriorated markedly in Balochistan and KP, prompting retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan, while Barrick Gold placed the Reko Diq project under review due to security concerns. On the macroeconomic front, NCPI for February 2026 stood at 7% YoY; the current account posted a surplus of USD 121 million in January 2026, and net FDI for the month stood at USD 137 million. Additionally, the Prime Minister reduced industrial electricity tariffs from PKR 30.80 per unit to PKR 26.03 per unit, offset by the imposition of fixed monthly charges on households.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

ABL-ISF decreased by -9.51% in Feb'26 against -9.85% decrease in the benchmark, reflecting an outperformance of 34 basis points. In February 2026, the KMI-30 Index closed at 235,325, registering a decline of 9.8% MoM (down 25,725 points) amid sizeable foreign outflows and subdued market activity. Net FIPI recorded an outflow of USD 278.9 million during the month, while average daily traded value decreased by 28.58% MoM to USD 64.18 million and average daily volumes fell by 37.59% MoM to 117.02 million shares. Market sentiment remained under pressure due to several macroeconomic and geopolitical factors, including uncertainty surrounding the USD 2 billion UAE loan rollover, the commencement of the 3rd International Monetary Fund EFF review from February 25, 2026, and elevated US-Iran tensions that caused volatility in international oil prices, leading to a 5.13% increase in MS prices and a 4.65% rise in HSD prices. On the domestic front, the implementation of the T+1 settlement reduced market leverage, triggering margin calls and panic selling, further intensified by heavy foreign selling. The security situation deteriorated markedly in Balochistan and KP, prompting retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan, while Barrick Gold placed the Reko Diq project under review due to security concerns. On the macroeconomic front, NCPI for February 2026 stood at 7% YoY; the current account posted a surplus of USD 121 million in January 2026, and net FDI for the month stood at USD 137 million. Additionally, the Prime Minister reduced industrial electricity tariffs from PKR 30.80 per unit to PKR 26.03 per unit, offset by the imposition of fixed monthly charges on households.

FUND MANAGER'S COMMENTS

ABL Islamic Pension Fund- Debt Sub Fund posted an annualised yield of 8.24% during the month of February '26. At the month end, Cash at Bank, Government backed securities, Corporate Sukuks and Commercial Paper stood at 44.93%, 38.65%, 14.48% and 0.00% respectively.

ABL Islamic Pension Fund - Money Market Sub Fund generated an annualized return of 8.56% in February '26. At month end portfolio comprised of 60.80% in Cash, Government backed securities stood at 23.24% and Corporate Sukuks stood at 14.51%.

ABL Islamic Pension Fund - Equity Sub Fund generated a return of -9.70% during the month of February '26. In February 2026, the KMI-30 Index closed at 235,325, registering a decline of 9.8% MoM (down 25,725 points) amid sizeable foreign outflows and subdued market activity. Net FIPI recorded an outflow of USD 278.9 million during the month, while average daily traded value decreased by 28.58% MoM to USD 64.18 million and average daily volumes fell by 37.59% MoM to 117.02 million shares. Market sentiment remained under pressure due to several macroeconomic and geopolitical factors, including uncertainty surrounding the USD 2 billion UAE loan rollover, the commencement of the 3rd International Monetary Fund EFF review from February 25, 2026, and elevated US-Iran tensions that caused volatility in international oil prices, leading to a 5.13% increase in MS prices and a 4.65% rise in HSD prices. On the domestic front the implementation of the T+1 settlement reduced market leverage, triggering margin calls and panic selling, further intensified by heavy foreign selling. The security situation deteriorated markedly in Balochistan and KP, prompting retaliatory strikes on Afghanistan, while Barrick Gold placed the Reko Diq project under review due to security concerns. On the macroeconomic front, NCPI for February 2026 stood at 7% YoY; the current account posted a surplus of USD 121 million in January 2026, and net FDI for the month stood at USD 137 million. Additionally, the Prime Minister reduced industrial electricity tariffs from PKR 30.80 per unit to PKR 26.03 per unit, offset by the imposition of fixed monthly charges on households.
